

Olmsted Parks Conservancy Photography Contest

Contest Rules

Olmsted Parks Conservancy invites photographers to enter our Photography Contest. Please read the following rules, terms and conditions before submitting any photos.

General Rules

The Photography Contest is open to all participants. There is no entry fee.

Subject Matter

Olmsted Parks Conservancy is seeking digital photographs of any of the 18 Frederick Law Olmsted Parks in Louisville, Kentucky. Each photographer may enter up to six (6) photographs taken in one or more of the following Olmsted Parks:

Algonquin Park, Baxter Square, Bingham Park, Boone Square, Central Park, Cherokee Park, Chickasaw Park, Churchill Park, Elliott Park, Iroquois Park, Seneca Park, Shawnee Park, Shelby Park, Stansbury Park, Tyler Park, Victory Park, Wayside Park, Willow Park

Photographs of people are accepted provided a model release is submitted for each person in the image. Olmsted Parks Conservancy will accept photographs containing one or more persons who have not signed model releases if the Olmsted Parks Conservancy determines the person or persons cannot be identified. Please use the Olmsted Park Model Release form, which can be found on the contest page, for each identifiable person shown in the photograph. If you are making your submission electronically, please retain all signed original model releases. Winners will be required to provide the original releases to us for our files.

Contest Categories

The Photography Contest will consist of seven categories, each of which will have one Winner and two Honorable Mentions. There will also be an overall Best in Show. The categories are as follows:

1. Winter
2. Summer
3. Spring
